

CURRICULUM VITAE

Michael Borshchevsky

Date of birth: 1939

Place of birth: St. Petersburg (Leningrad)

I. WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2003 – to date      Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of “Herald of Europe” magazine
- 2000 – to date      Director of Inter TV Ltd (First independent Russian language global television)
- 1999 – 2000        General Representative of “Most-Bank” in the UK
- 1994 – 1998        Sole Representative of the Association of Russian Banks in London in the capacity of Vice-President of the Association
- 1994 – 1997        Visiting Professor of the University of Westminster, Head of the Research Group - Investment Projects in the CIS, Head of the Anglo-Russian Banking Development Programme
- 1992 – 1997        Co-Chairman “United Europe” Corporation
- 1990 – 1993        Chairman of the “Anglo-Soviet Trading House” (London)
- 1990 – 1992        BBC Russian service, Radio “Liberty” – social and economy observer (freelance)
- 1992 – 1993        Publisher of Anglo-Russian “Newsletters” (UK)
- 1966- 1989        Head of Research departments of various institutes of Academy of Science of the USSR (Moscow and Leningrad).
- 1967 – 1988        (Part-time) – Senior Lecturer and Professor at the: Leningrad University, Moscow Academy of Economy and other universities
- 1958 – 1966        Engineer and researcher in different industrial organisations

Member of the World Economic Forum (Davos – 1992,1993), International Sociological Congress (1978, 1979)

II. EDUCATION

- 1979 – Ph.D. in Economics
- 1973 – Ph.D. in Sociology
- 1968 – Leningrad State University,      MSc in Sociology
- 1964 – Leningrad Institute of Engineering and Economic Studies
Degree in Engineering and Economics; MSc in Economics
- 1958 – Leningrad Technical College of Energy and Power
Degree in Engineering

Author of 115 articles including 5 books on the problems of economy, sociology, regional economics, urbanism and regional investment projects.